The recommendation in full is as follows:

Wailuku, Aug. 8th, 1907.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors,

County of Maui, T. H.

Gentlemen:—
Owing to the continued annoyance at the end of each month in checking up bills for materials purchased in the various districts of this county, I hereby recommend the following as a remedy.

1. Constitute the Clerk or his deputy as the Purchasing Agent of the County for all articles purchased.

2. The County Engineer, Road Overseers or other officers heretofore authorized to purchase materials, or who may be hereafter authorized to do so, to do so only through said Purchasing Agent, specifying each item, place of delivery, the account to which said items are to be charged, the place where the articles are to be purchased (this at the option of the officer desiring the goods) and any and all special directions that may be necessary to insure the order being properly filled.

3. This order may be transmitted to the Purchasing Agent by telephone, mail or in person, as circumstances may require, but in all cases a written order must immediately follow a telephonic or personal order.

4. The purchasing Agent shall immediately upon receipt of each order enter same in full in an order book kept for the purpose, one for each district, the orders to be numbered consecutively, and made in duplicate.

5. The Purchasing Agent may then telephone the order to the merchant or firm supplying the goods, and his order must state the following:

Date, number of the order and name of district consignee, place to be delivered, also with instruction to shipper to send a sales tag to the consignee with the goods.

6. The Purchasing Agent must then, on the same day, mail a confirmation order to the merchant or firm, or if immediate delivery is not required, the telephone order may be omitted.

7. Upon receipt of the goods, the consignee must immediately check up same with the sales tag and original order, and if found in order, certify to the fact by means of the usual check mark opposite each item, and his signature below. If not found in order, the matter must be adjusted at once, and the Purchasing Agent notified.

8. The sales tag, either certified to as corresponding to the goods received, or with deductions or substitutions that are permanent, must be mailed to the Purchasing Agent at the earliest possible moment.

9. All bills can then be sent in to the Purchasing Agent at the end of the month, and approved by him when found to conform with the returned sales tags, properly certified to.

10. No bill is to be presented to the Board until in due form as above noted, and all persons and firms supplying goods to the County to be notified of his regulation.
